

JUNIOR ALL NATIVE TOURNAMENT SCHOLARSHIPS

with generous support from Capilano University, Squamish Nation and Britannia Community Education

The 2018 Junior All Native Tournament Committee would like to support student-athletes who have competed at an elite level of basketball, while displaying excellence in both sportsmanship and citizenship. Applicants should also show a commitment to their school and/or community through involvement in coaching, officiating, leadership and volunteer activities. Applicants should be candid about barriers to success. The amount of support awarded will vary, based on the number of applicants and the monies available for distribution.

CAPILANO UNIVERSITY will be providing support to at least one graduating player from a JANT team. Additional support will be provided to JANT players who commit to the Capilano University Blues Basketball Program through a selective process. Successful applicants need to attend Capilano University on a full time basis in 2018/2019. SQUAMISH NATION will also provide support to a graduating Squamish Nation JANT player. Full time is defined as taking nine credits in one term. For more information, please refer to the summary sheet.
